Itinerary

Day 01: Departure by bus from San Francisco, Santa Fe or Rosario, to Villa María (see dates and type of transport), Bus Group CAMA car through Río Cuarto, La Pampa towards Puerto Madryn, technical stops and Night in Bus

Day 02: Arrival approximately at noon. In the afternoon, City Tour through the city and its surroundings visiting the monument to the Tehuelche Indian, being able to appreciate marine fossils and a particular Patagonian landscape. Accommodation,

Day 03: Puerto Pirámides: Departure in the morning to Puerto Pirámides place from where the boarding is made in special boats to admire a show that few have the possibility to see in the world: the Southern Right Whale (only from July to December). During summer there is a coastal excursion in the same boats watching sea lions, fossils and enjoying a beautiful landscape (both are optional). On the way back to the city, we will visit the Florentino Ameghino isthmus, which has an interpretation center. Return to Puerto Madryn in the afternoon. Accommodation.

Day 04: Departure to El Calafate: Departure in the morning to the lower valley of the Chubut River, visiting UNION BEACH with its natural harbor (used by the Welsh settlers since its arrival), and the mouth of the Chubut River to the sea and then we will cross to RAWSON and later TRELEW, watching its industrial and commercial activity. Free lunch in that city. After lunch we will continue to El Calafate. Optional visit: Punta Tombo. Is the most important reserve in the world of Magellanic penguins, where you can see just a few steps specimens in full breeding season, Guanacos, ñandúes and maras, having the possibility of touring the new interpretation center. Free time in Comodoro Rivadavia and following the trip with technical stops in Puerto San Julián or Comandante Luis Piedrabuena.

Day 05: Arrival to El Calafate. During the afternoon, free time to rest or visit the city, or for those who wish it take the 4 x 4 crossing to Cerro Calafate (optional) or take a walk around the Laguna Nimes where you can see flamingos, cauquenes, swans and other migratory birds. You can also make a City Tour around the town visiting its main attractions and the Ice Museum (optional). Accommodation

Day 06: Excursion to LOS GLACIARES National Park. The walk begins with a tour of the arid Patagonian plateau to enter a lush mountain forest, until you reach the access to the Glacier National Park, where we begin to walk along the shores of Lake Argentino. You can do a one hour navigation to approach the imposing walls of the glacier (optional). Then we will continue our trip until we reach the footbridges that allow us to appreciate a spectacle without equal: the Perito Moreno Glacier. Return in the afternoon, Accommodation.

Day 07: Free day to do optional activities such as trekking through the Moreno Glacier, walking on the millenary ice, this being an unforgettable experience, the navigation of the Ice Rivers visiting the Spegazzini Glacier and the Upsala Glacier Iceberg or visiting the beautiful village of El Chaltén where you can see the majestic Cerro Fitz Roy and Lake Viedma if the weather accompanies. Accommodation.

Day 08: Departure from El Calafate to Ushuaia: Departure at dawn towards Ushuaia. In this tour we will make technical stops in Río Gallegos, Monte Aymond where we will perform the immigration, customs and phytosanitary procedures to enter the Republic of Chile, from there we will go to the Strait of Magellan where we will board the ferry and we will have the unique opportunity to cross it, then we will cross the Island of Tierra del Fuego within Chilean territory by gravel roads to reach San Sebastián and perform the necessary customs procedures to re-enter Argentine territory, then we will cross Río Grande, economic capital of the province, center of industry, oil and livestock on the island. Halfway between Río Grande and Ushuaia, when the plateau slowly transforms into the mountain, Tolhuin appears. It is the third town in the province, and is located at the head of Lake Fagnano, just over 100 km from Ushuaia, capital of the island, where we will be arriving in the early hours of the morning (The time of arrival in Ushuaia will depend on the climatic conditions in the Strait given that the service is suspended due to strong winds and customs delays since several procedures have to be carried out). The arrival time to Ushuaia can vary from 10 pm to 3 or 4 am in relation to the aforementioned. Accommodation.

Day 09: Ushuaia: Free morning to rest or visit the center. In the afternoon, excursion to the Tierra del Fuego National Park, crossing the lush Patagonian forests until reaching Lapataia Bay, where the RN 3 ends and the American continent symbolically ends. The excursion is scheduled to visit the Roca Lake, Ensenada Bay and the railway station of the famous End of the World Train where passengers can take that excursion (optional, at the expense of the passenger). Return to the hotel in the afternoon. Accommodation.

Day 10: Morning navigation through the Beagle Channel to visit the Les Eclaireurs lighthouse, the colonies of sea lions and cormorants, and beautiful views of the Bay of Ushuaia (optional by the passenger). In the afternoon we suggest to make the City Tour visiting the Winter Valleys and different panoramic points of the city or to know the Presidio of the End of the world (both are optional at the expense of the passenger).

Day 11: Ushuaia to Puerto Madryn: (Passengers who return by plane, transfer to the airport and return flight to Córdoba). Departure early in the morning, crossing the Andes mountain range passing through the Garibaldi pass and technical stops at Río Gallegos, Comandante Luis Piedrabuena and Comodoro Rivadavia.

Day 12: Puerto Madryn: Arrival after noon and accommodation. Free afternoon to rest and visit the city.

Day 13: Puerto Madryn to Córdoba: In the morning, after breakfast, we will start our return trip, visiting the Las Grutas spa where we will make a stop to meet and have lunch. Then we will continue the starting destination.

Day 14: Arrival to Córdoba. End of our services.
